Bright Housing Forecast

The number of building approvals for new homes is at a very healthy level, with June seeing the largest jump in two years.

According to the Housing Industry Association's consulting economist Geoff Bills "A combination of factors, including a strong economy, rising consumer confidence, low interest rates, low unemployment and increased migration will ensure new housing numbers pick up later this year and in early 2004 after a decline over the past six months."

New U.F.O. Belt Elevator Now Available

We are very pleased to add to our wide range of equipment with the release of our newest model Belt Elevator. This USER-FRIENDLY OPERATION model has been a while coming, and like all our equipment, has come about through continuing feedback from you. It will make your job easier, quicker, more profitable and more rewarding.

It's features include:

- Safety lift-off platform at the top
No need to stand so close to the edge of the roof.
- It's lighter
Improved design makes it easier to lift.
- Much improved tracking system
Belt is captive between nylon runners, ensuring it does not move sideways.
- Replaceable belt savers under the tiles
Tiles do not come in contact with the belt, so no need to re-position cleats.
- Simpler cleat system
Cleats have no wheels or skids to replace.
- 35ft length now available
Choose from 22, 32, 35 & 38ft models.

- Reverse now standard
To strip the roof, just flip the switch and the tiles come down.
- 12 volt electrical cut-off switches
At top & bottom.
- Base wheel lock
Lock the base wheels with just a tap of the foot.
- Best model yet!

NO MORE WASHOUTS!

The Flexicover Ridge Tarps we stock have proved a very popular addition to our range of products.

Designed by a roof tiler, for roof tilers, these heavy-duty polyethylene tarps are just what you need to ensure your hard work, time and money are not washed away in a downpour.

Available in seven metre rolls, they are quick and easy to use.

TILECUTTERS

Are you still using an old model Tilecutter? Try our current model – it's a breeze to operate.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT TAGGED WHILE YOU WAIT

Building site inspectors require proof that your electrical equipment is safe to operate. Hytile can check, tag, and if necessary, repair your equipment while you wait.

Know yourself. Don't accept your dog's admiration as conclusive evidence that you are wonderful.
